

Massillon Museum

121 Lincoln Way East, Massillon, OH 44646

www.massillonmuseum.org

330-833-4061 phone

Free admission

Tuesday–Saturday 9:30–5:00

Sunday 2:00–5:00

Ohregionalties (museum shop): Open during museum hours

Closed Mondays and major holidays

In addition to fine art, the Massillon Museum has major collections of photography, costumes, textiles, china, glass, pottery, domestic appliances, and circus memorabilia. The museum offers changing art and history exhibitions, a concert series, Brown Bag Lunch presentations, a history discussion group, and special events. Art and educational classes are offered for children and adults. Group tours are available. ORMP members receive a 10% discount at Ohregionalties and discounted class fees.

Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) Cleveland

11400 Euclid Avenue

Cleveland, OH 44106

www.mocacleveland.org

216-421-8671 phone

Free general admission

Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday–Sunday 11:00–5:00

Thursday 11:00–9:00

Closed Monday and major holidays

MOCA Cleveland connects its visitors to the dynamic art and ideas of our time. Exhibitions present emerging international artists and notable regional artists. More than a venue for presenting thought-provoking exhibitions, MOCA offers illuminating programs designed to reveal links among contemporary life, art, and culture. Lectures, films, performances, concerts, and forums inspire and challenge audiences.

Springfield Museum of Art

107 Cliff Park Road, Springfield, OH 45504

937-325-4673 phone; 937-325-4674 fax

smoa@springfieldart.net

www.springfieldart.museum

Wednesday–Saturday 9:00–5:00 pm

Sunday 12:30–4:30

Closed Mondays and Tuesdays, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, New Year's Day

Situated in beautiful Cliff Park, Springfield Museum of Art mounts a broad array of changing exhibits featuring outstanding creations from both established and emerging artists, balanced with galleries that showcase works from the museum's superb permanent collections, including significant work by Ohio and self-taught artists. Partnerships with community organizations bring art classes, concerts, and artist talks to the museum.

Free on-site parking.

Adults 18 and older: $5

Students 18 and older: $3

Children 17 and younger: Free

AAA Members: $4

Museum members: Free except for special exhibitions

Toledo Museum of Art

2445 Monroe Street, Toledo OH 43620

419-255-8000 phone (TDD)

800-644-6862 (TDD)

www.toledomuseum.org

Free general admission

Tuesday–Wednesday 10:00–4:00

Thursday–Friday 10:00–9:00; Saturday 10:00–5:00

Sunday noon–5:00

Closed Mondays and major holidays

Experience one of the finest and most diverse collections of art in the country. At TMA, more than 30,000 works of art represent American and European painting, the history of art in glass, ancient Greek, Roman, and Egyptian works, Asian and African art, medieval art, sculpture, decorative arts, graphic arts, and modern and contemporary art. Spend the day and enjoy the café, the museum store, glass artist demos and more. Reciprocal members receive free parking and 10% off museum store purchases (excluding original art).

Wexner Center for the Arts

The Ohio State University

1871 North High Street, Columbus, OH 43210-1393

614-292-3535 phone

www.wexarts.org

Free admission to exhibitions, openings, and public programs

Sunday, Tuesday, Wednesday 11:00–6:00

Thursday–Saturday 11:00–8:00

Galleries closed Monday, Center closed major holidays
10% discount in Wexner Center Store and Café

The Wexner Center is a vital showcase for contemporary art, architecture, film, video, dance, music, and theater from around the world. Tours, lectures, workshops, and hands-on activities for children and families complement the changing array of exhibitions, performances, and film screenings. Frequent artists' residencies and commissioned projects offer audiences firsthand exposure to creativity in action. Designed by Peter Eisenman, the center's building is internationally recognized as a landmark of postmodern architecture.

Zanesville Museum of Art

620 Military Road, Zanesville, OH 43701

740-452-0741 phone

www.zanesvilleart.org

Wednesday, Friday, Saturday 10:00–5:00

Thursday 10:00–7:30; Closed Sunday, Monday,

Tuesdays, and holidays

Benefits for reciprocal members: Free admission and free parking

Two miles north of Interstate 70, the Zanesville Museum of Art's stunning collection features European and American paintings, works on paper, sculpture, glass, and ceramics as well as Asian and African arts. The Paul Diamond Pottery Gallery offers the largest public collection of Ohio Art Pottery. The Museum also presents traveling and special exhibitions. Card-carrying reciprocal members receive free admission, and a 10% discount in the shop.

Ohio Museum Reciprocal Membership Program

Your Special Benefit

Akron Art Museum

Allen Memorial Art Museum

The Butler Institute of American Art

The Canton Museum of Art

Cincinnati Art Museum

The Cleveland Museum of Art

Columbus Museum of Art

The Contemporary Arts Center

The Dayton Art Institute

Massillon Museum

Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA) Cleveland

Springfield Museum of Art

Toledo Museum of Art

Wexner Center for the Arts

Zanesville Museum of Art

January 1–December 31, 2015

Akron Art Museum

One South High Street, Akron, OH 44308
330-376-9185 phone
www.akronartmuseum.org
mail@akronartmuseum.org
Adults $7; students and seniors $5; members and children 17 and under free
Wednesday–Sunday 11:00–5:00
Thursday 11:00–9:00
Closed Monday and Tuesday

The Akron Art Museum showcases regional, national, and international art created since 1850, including American painting and sculpture since 1960, 20th-century American and international photography, and American Impressionist paintings. Some special exhibitions have an admission fee.

Allen Memorial Art Museum

Oberlin College
87 North Main Street, Oberlin, OH 44074
440-775-8665 phone
www.oberlin.edu/amam
Free admission, open to the public
Tuesday–Saturday 10:00–5:00
Sunday 1:00–5:00
Closed Monday and major holidays

Since its founding in 1917, the AMAM has been a major educational and cultural asset of Oberlin College and Northeast Ohio. The collection is housed in an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building designed by Cass Gilbert; the postmodern addition was designed in 1977 by Venturi, Scott Brown & Associates. Major holdings include works by Rubens, Turner, Cole, Picasso, Monet, Cézanne, Kirchner, Rodin, Matisse, Miro, Modigliani, and Mondrian.

The Butler Institute of American Art

524 Wick Avenue, Youngstown, OH 44502
330-743-1107 phone; 330-743-9567 fax
www.butlerart.com
Tuesday–Saturday 11:00–4:00
Sunday 12:00–4:00
Closed Monday and major holidays
Free admission and parking

The Butler Trumbull branch, 9350 E. Market St., in Howland, is open Wednesday–Saturday 11:00–4:00.

Founded in 1919, the Butler houses a collection of American art including Homer, Warhol, Cassatt, Vonnoh, and Hopper. The museum has 22 galleries, a hi-tech wing, auditorium, gift shop, and café. Programs include lectures, invited exhibitions with artist openings, and tours. Butler North, an additional building, houses an education center and spaces for ceremonies.

The Canton Museum of Art

In the Cultural Center for the Arts
1001 Market Avenue North, Canton, OH 44702
330-453-7666 phone; 330-453-1034 fax
www.cantonart.org
Tuesday–Wednesday 10:00–8:00
Thursday–Friday 10:00–5:00
Saturday 10:00–3:00, Sunday 1:00–5:00
Closed Monday and holidays

Founded in 1935, the Canton Museum of Art (CMA) is recognized in Northeast Ohio for its powerful programming of national touring exhibits, as well as dynamic original exhibits featuring celebrated artists from around the world and those in the museum's unique permanent collection (ranging from Homer to Singer, Schreckengost to Takaazu). CMA exhibitions are enhanced with innovative education outreach programs and in-museum studio art classes for all age groups in diverse mediums such as ceramics and painting. From lectures and music programs to special arts day events and shopping in the museum store, there is always something new to explore and enjoy more at the Canton Museum of Art! (Note: Some special exhibitions may carry an admission fee.)

Cincinnati Art Museum

953 Eden Park Drive, Cincinnati, OH 45202
513-721-ARTS phone
www.cincinnatiartmuseum.org
Tuesday–Sunday 11:00–5:00
Closed Monday and major holidays

Founded in 1881, the Cincinnati Art Museum opened to the public in 1886 and was heralded as the “Art Palace of the West.” Over a period of 125 years, the museum has developed an extraordinarily rich collection numbering more than 60,000 objects that span 6,000 years, with masterpieces from many cultures and historical periods.

The Cleveland Museum of Art

11150 East Boulevard, Cleveland, OH 44106-1797
216-421-7350 phone; 888-CMA-0033 outside Cleveland
www.clevelandart.org
Free admission to permanent collection
Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday, Sunday 10:00–5:00
Wednesday, Friday 10:00–9:00
Closed Monday and major holidays
Museum store and cafe on the premises.
Wheelchair accessible.

Since opening its doors in 1916, the Cleveland Museum of Art has gained worldwide recognition for the superb quality of its comprehensive collection. With more than 42,000 objects, the museum's collection spans 6,000 years of creative achievement. The museum completed its renovation and expansion in 2013; new permanent collection, temporary exhibition spaces, the award-winning Gallery One, and the Ames Family Atrium are now open to all. Special exhibitions and programs continue at the museum and throughout the community. Some special exhibitions have an admission fee.

Columbus Museum of Art

480 East Broad Street, Columbus, OH 43215
614-221-6801 phone
614-221-4848 24-hour information line
www.columbusmuseum.org
Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday–Sunday 10:00–5:30
Thursday 10:00–8:30
Museum Store: Open during museum hours
Closed Monday

Columbus Museum of Art creates great experiences with art for everyone. Celebrated as a treasure trove of European and American Modernism, the museum's collection includes important examples of Impressionism, German Expressionism, and Cubism. A growing interest in folk art, contemporary art, and photography continues CMA's commitment to collecting and exhibiting art of our time. The museum also presents a rich menu of traveling and CMA-organized special exhibitions, which have garnered critical and popular acclaim. CMA's dynamic Center for Creativity champions creativity and provides opportunities for people to discover the value of creativity in their own lives.

Contemporary Arts Center

44 East Sixth Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202
513-345-8400 phone
www.contemporaryartscenter.org
Adults $7.50; Student/Senior (60+)/Educator $5.50; children (5–18) $5.50; members and children under 5 free
Monday 10:00–9:00 (5:00–9:00 free admission)
Wednesday–Friday 10:00–6:00
Saturday, Sunday 11:00–6:00
Closed Tuesday

The CAC is a noncollecting, progressive institution that provides the opportunity for all people to discover the dynamic relationship between art and life.

The Dayton Art Institute

456 Belmonte Park North, Dayton, OH 45405–4700
937-223-4ART information
937-223-5277 administrative offices
www.daytonartinstitute.org
info@daytonart.org
Suggested general admission: Adults $8; Seniors (60+), active military and groups $5; College Students (18+ with ID) Free
Youth & children (17 & under) and members Free
Special exhibitions may carry an admission fee.
Galleries and Museum Store open
Tuesday–Friday & Saturday 11:00–8:00
Saturday 10:00–5:00
Sunday 12:00–5:00
Leo Bistro: open during museum hours
Closed Mondays, Fourth of July, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, New Year's Day, and Easter Sunday.

Celebrating 94 years of collecting, interpreting, and celebrating visual art, the Dayton Art Institute is one of the nation's finest mid-size art museums. Highlights include an extensive Asian collection, 17th-century Baroque paintings, 18th- and 19th-century American, and contemporary art collection. The museum features outstanding special exhibitions, a wide variety of educational programs, and an interactive, family-oriented Experientcenter. The museum's Italian Renaissance-inspired building overlooks Dayton's central business district and welcomes nearly 140,000 visitors annually.